RESTORE HONOR AND RESPECT FOR ONE OF AMERICA'S GREATEST BALLPLAYERS

- THE CAMPAIGN: The goal of ClearBuck.com is to generate awareness and support through various grassroots efforts to influence Commissioner Selig to clear Buck Weaver's name and reinstate him to Major League Baseball
- BANISHED FOR LIFE: George 'Buck' Weaver, Chicago White Sox third-baseman (1912-20) though an innocent man, was banished from baseball for life
- WRONGLY ACCUSED: Weaver is known as one of the Chicago 'Black Sox', accused of throwing the 1919 World Series against the Cincinnati Reds
- THE TRUTH: Buck had a .324 batting average and no fielding errors in the Series AND was the only player of the eight accused not to receive money for the fix
- BROKEN-HEARTED: Buck died in Chicago in 1956, yet Major League Baseball still refuses to acknowledge his accomplishments as one of America's best ballplayers
- CLEAR HIS NAME: The ClearBuck.com campaign seeks to honor and restore the reputation of one of America's great third basemen by reinstating Buck Weaver to Major League Baseball
- SHOW YOUR SUPPORT: Visit www.clearbuck.com for more information
- THE FOUNDER: Dr. David Fletcher, a lifelong Chicago baseball fan who was married at the site of old Comiskey Park's home plate, is the president and founder of clearbuck.com
- THE FAMILY: 77-year-old Patricia Anderson, Buck Weaver's only living relative, continues her lifelong crusade to clear her uncle's name

Dr. David Fletcher and Patricia Anderson are both available for media interviews.
